The Anthology of Indian Classical Music consists of all four volumes in the North Indian Classical Music series on Rounder originally released between 1955 and 1959. The collection is a comprehensive survey of North Indian classical music from VIII till XXI century.

The first volume, Classical Music – A Tribute to Alain Daniélou, contains representative examples of the best Anthology of Music. The second volume, Melodies of India, a tribute to Alain Daniélou, was released in 1997. The third volume, Musical Traditions of India, was released in 1999. The fourth and final volume, The Mizzou Store - ANTHOLOGY OF WORLD MUSIC: NORTH INDIAN CLASSICAL MUSIC, was released in 2003.

The Anthology of Indian Classical Music is a series of recordings produced by UNESCO and released by the Hugo and Celestial Harmonies labels. The anthology includes the first recording of Indian classical music to become available in the West in which the recorded music consists of all four volumes in the North Indian Classical Music series on Rounder originally released between 1955 and 1959.

