An Annotated Bibliography presents a thoroughly researched bibliographic guide to monographic, serial, archival. Church Woodwork in the British Isles, 1100-1535: An Annotated Bibliography. By Robert A. Faleer. Church Woodwork in the British Isles, 1100-1535: An Annotated Bibliography is a new volume from Scarecrow Press which catalogues and describes scholarly works in the field of church woodwork in the British Isles during the medieval period. The book provides a comprehensive bibliography of works on church woodwork, including monographs, articles, and periodicals. It covers a range of topics, including architectural history, archaeology, and art history. The bibliography is a valuable resource for scholars and researchers interested in the study of church woodwork in the British Isles.