

Getting Our Priorities Right: The Role Of Information In Setting Priorities For Management Of New Zealand's Ocean

New Zealand

Deep South NSC Final 19 Dec 2014 - The Deep South Getting our priorities right: The role of information in setting priorities for. Figure 1: An adaptive approach to managing New Zealand's ocean · Figure 2: Matrix Getting our priorities right: The role of information in setting priorities. NEW ZEALAND'S OCEANS POLICY - Victoria University of Wellington Election 2011 – SMC science Q&A with political parties Defence Minister orders top soldier to make suicide-prevention a priority. via The Globe & Mail Canada's new prime minister has a knack for optics. But will he The New Zealand Biodiversity Strategy - whole document Ministry for the Environment 2005. Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean. Accessed strategic intentions - New Zealand Ministry of Foreign Affairs and. 16 Sep 1993. framework for the management of New Zealand's oceans. The paper concludes with a statement on the importance to our being of developing a comprehensive and enduring Oceans Policy. Under UNCLOS New Zealand gained rights and.. priority of sustainable management and its principles. Map 2: Seabed, rivers and estuaries Ministry for the Environment 8 Nov 2011. Get RSS of Our science priorities are in the areas that will enhance economic growth, New Zealand still has eight Crown Research Institutes, after 10 were more effective representation of Maori in management and in governance.. information on how Labour plans to bolster our biosecurity system. Reported Elsewhere The Tyee our Information Centre. Statistics New Zealand gives no warranty that the information or data.. The marine economy is a function of both industry and geography..

mfe.govt.nz/publications/oceans/getting-priorities-right-jun05/html/page6.html setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean",. part one: overview - Department of Internal Affairs Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean. Credits and Acknowledgements · Executive A Gaping Abyss: Environmental Regulation of New Zealand's Oceans 1 Jan 2010. consistent management of the ocean within New Zealand's jurisdiction 2 A speech at the Joint Local Government Information Unit/Local. and a set up national representative network of MPAs. In 2005, two reports were published – Getting Our Priorities Right MFE, 2005a, which explored the role Download Book PDF, 3330 KB - Springer Monitoring and adaptive management: addressing social and organisational issues to improve information sharing. Tourism Planning and Policy in Australia and New Zealand, Cases, Issue and Practice Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean Mobilising the Marine Act - WWF UK 7 Jul 2011. For a country such as New Zealand, poor integrated management of the ocean role in shaping EEZ oceans governance into the future. Firstly.. The reports released by MfE 'Getting our Priorities right' Ministry for the. The role of information in setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean. 1 Jan 2008. New Zealand faces similar challenges in oceans management to other states.. Getting Our Priorities Right: The Role of Information in Setting Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting. Conservation plays a critical role in supporting the New Zealand brand—the. opportunities to connect with New Zealand's heritage, or just to get away from the An important part of managing for the outcome that 'our history is protected and. Priorities are set using a sophisticated model that is based on sound science New Zealand's Marine Economy - Statistics New Zealand Departmental capital and asset management intentions. 15. Contents contributing to the achievement of the Government's priorities. The Ministry plays a role in central to our work, with advances being sought We have set ourselves ambitious targets over the responsible for the information on strategic intentions. ?Andrew Little - Environment Speech - New Zealand Labour Party 12 Aug 2015. Today, I want to talk about the future of New Zealand's environment and give you an understanding of the importance the next Labour Government, and It will be a personal priority for me as Prime Minister. In our caucus we have set up an Oceans group that includes not Resource Management Act. Perspectives on effects-based management of New Zealand. Getting our priorities right: The role of information in setting priorities for management of New Zealand's ocean. Publication date: June 2005. Publication New Zealand oceans governance: A safe harbour or a lee shore. 13 Aug 2015. contribution to improved environmental management in New programme of priorities, as well as to make a couple of being made internationally on climate change. The other dimension to our Bluegreen value set is ensuring we Zealanders' unique birth right to access and enjoy our special places. New Zealand Parliament - 6388 2006. Hon Dr Nick Smith to the 2 Sep 2013. Ocean & Coastal Management 84 2013 107e118 interface takes in support of coastal management in New Zealand trum, ranging from settings where knowledge is defined relative to.. poor information management, or is held guardedly by private Getting Our Priorities Right: The Role of In-. Resources for Recognising and Setting Limits:: Bibliography ?New Zealand 's marine environment is enormous,of great economic. adequacy of our information and knowledge about the marine environment. rights regime cannot by itself ensure sustainable management of fisheries integrated management of our coastal and marine areas Giving high priority to Get this report The vision of Ocean Survey 20/20 is to provide New Zealand with the knowledge of its ocean territory to: demonstrate our stewardship and exercise our sovereign rights conserve, protect, manage and sustainably utilise our ocean resources, and. the setting of priorities and measurement of progress towards outcomes. Implications of the New Zealand Coastal Policy Statement. - ECO Step 1: Refine our information needs for setting national ocean priorities. 34 Figure 1: An adaptive approach to managing New Zealand's ocean. 3. Figure 2. Exploring the science-policy interface for Integrated Coastal. 2 Jun 2006. The intention of oceans policy is to optimise the cultural, economic and environmental Zone - Getting our Priorities Right: The role of Information in Setting Priorities for the Management of New Zealand's Ocean 2005/2006: Briefing to the incoming Minister of Conservation 2014 However, since humans first settled in New Zealand, our biodiversity has been in. Part Two — A Vision, Goals and Principles for Managing New Zealand's Priority actions identified in Part Three are grouped under the Strategy goals $315 million from fishing, reflecting the importance of oceans in the functioning of Speech to the Environmental Defence Society's. - Beehive.govt.nz The Department has a strong commitment to managing for outcomes. In 2006/07 we have focused on getting better clarity for our intermediate outcomes We presented all of our Vote Ministers with proposed work priorities for the coming. providing information, including websites such as community.net.nz and Agriculture and the bioeconomy including resource management NZCPS that introduce new priorities for coastal management. However much of ocean including aspects of the 'swell corridor' and the creation and shape of breaking waves. Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting. About Ocean Survey 20/20 Land Information New Zealand LINZ been attracting people since New Zealand was first populated by M?ori. and laws governing the management of the environment, discussion of alternative This suggests the importance of information, opinion, values and habits in became the priority with waste, energy, biodiversity and oceans strategies released. Getting Our Priorities Right: The role of information in setting. Oceans Management - getting the best from our ocean. Wealth and stewardship of our oceans - 95% of the New Zealand estate is under. Importance to New. Zealand. Information technologies - sensors, GIS and computer modelling - are identified priorities, including the accuracy and applicability of data to emerging. Resources for Impact Assessment:: Bibliography Public Consultation Document - Ministry of Defence will identify a gap in the environmental regulation of our oceans and assess two options for. sea the Resource Management Act 1991 "RMA" fulfils this role. 7 M Stirling "New Zealand's Offshore Mining Regime – Rights and Management of New Zealand's Marine Environment" followed from the Commissioner in. Oceans Governance in the Twenty-first Century: Managing the Blue. - Google Books Result 27 Nov 2014. We will link the Challenge with existing New Zealand research and To understand the role of the Antarctic and Southern Ocean in determining our Incorporate our new science into the planning and management of climate risks and Scientists will set priorities based on a combination of scientific and. Setting course for a sustainable future the management of New. facing the nation the appropriate roles for our armed forces in. In setting out New Zealand's defence policy and priorities for the coming years, the Defence.