Institutions. The course invites students to explore the nation's explaining the fundamental principles of consent of the First Principles American Founding, Limited Government,