ANDREW HAS grown up near the Plymouth docks hearing the sailors talk about America. Knowing that Andrew's heart is set on going to the new world, his father sends him up to London to serve as page in the household of Walter Raleigh. In Queen Elizabeth's court, Andrew must prove himself as a page to Sir Walter Raleigh before embarking for Virginia. The riveting story of Andrew, a young boy sent as a page to his father's old friend Walter Raleigh, is told by Alan Armstrong and illustrated by Tim Jessell.
