The Presbyterian Standards: An Exposition Of The Westminster Confession Of Faith And Catechisms

Francis R Beattie

The Westminster Confession of Faith is a reformed confession of faith, adopted by various Christian denominations around the world. It serves as a foundational document for theological and doctrinal discussions. This exposition provides an in-depth look at the historical context, content, and the adoption and revisions by American Presbyterian churches.

1. Historical Context
2. Content
3. American Presbyterian Adoption and Revisions

The world has adopted the confession and the catechisms as their standards of faith, providing a systematic exposition of Calvinist orthodoxy.